
Logging and Monitoring in Google Cloud

This brings us to the end of Logging and Monitoring in Google Cloud course.

Recap

01 Explain the purpose and capabilities of Google Cloud Observability

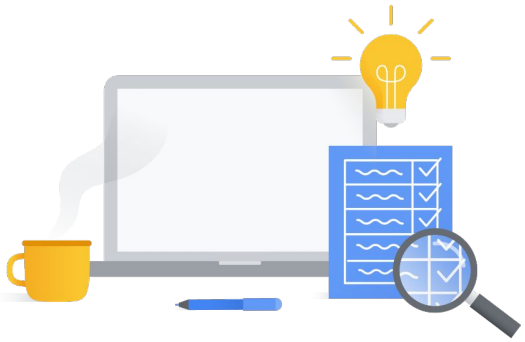
02 Implement monitoring for multiple cloud projects

03 Create alerting policies, uptime checks and alerts

04 Use Cloud Logging to collect logs and export for further analysis

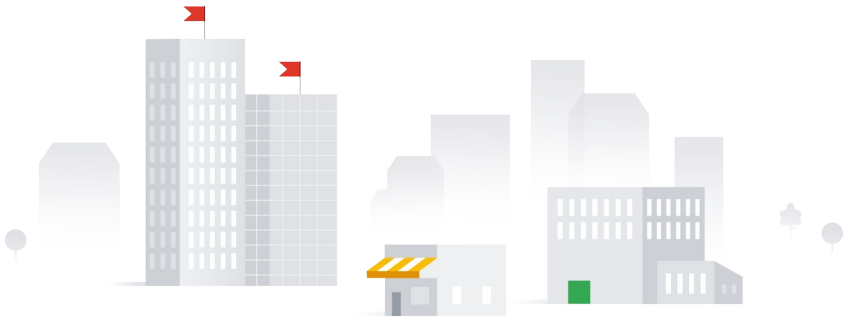
In this course we learned

- The purpose and capabilities of Google Cloud Observability
- How to implement monitoring for multiple cloud projects
- Create alerting policies, uptime checks and alerts to identify and resolve problems quickly
- Use Cloud Logging to collect logs and export for further analysis



Observability in Google Cloud

If you’re interested in learning more about application performance management, please go to the next course ”Observability in Google Cloud”.



We'll see you next time!

See you next time!